Re: [Fwd: List of Evil beings and Demons]

This is a list of evil beings where they reside, either inside of outside of you. A list is useless unless it accomplishes what it needs to do. If you read this list and feel no conviction, or do not receive any revelation about yourself and the evil beings and demons, it is probably not something I should do. If you do feel conviction, or gain revelation, knowledge, and understanding about yourself and evil beings then it is doing what it is supposed to do.

Let me know what you discern about the material, or what you think needs to be done to make it better. I need your honest and truthful opinion because I will make it part of my teaching and prayer material if it is useful. If it is not, I don't need to put it in the material.

CONSCIENCE

Familiar spirits that are familiar with your ancestry, the antichrist and his helpers, the images in your imagination, the bad and good things that have happened to you since you were born and the strong images that are in your memory/images. They also know the counterfeit personality they are trying to counterfeit within you.

They try to convince you that the false images in your imagination are true. They are trying to get you to have false beliefs that you believe are true. (Connected with the Angel of unbelief and false belief)

They use evil beings, demons, and people outside you to confirm that these images are true

Being familiar with the bad and good things that have happened to you since you were born, they trigger those images so they flash up on the screen of your mind.

They also use evil beings, demons, and people, who are being controlled by evil beings, to help trigger these images in your memory.

When these images are flashed on the screen of your mind, the most common reaction is fear of some type. There are multitudes of fears so it could be almost anything.

Then they begin to talk about how bad the situation was or is. They are very negative when they are talking to you about these bad images. They are trying to increase the fear in you to get you to act.

There next suggestion is to take an action to overcome the fear. It could be anger, resentment, violence, murder, suicide. It could be drugs, alcohol, overeating, etc. It could be sexual perverseness of any type. It could be to work hard, achieve, attain, make money, and acquire. It could be to dominate, influence, control, seduce, or manipulate other people to make things come out your way. It could be to develop relationships with people you feel will help you overcome your fear. It could be to be a slave to someone else so you will feel secure. It could be a myriad of things. You will have to ask the Holy Spirit to show you the ones that control you or that you have the most fear of. All of these actions to overcome your fears are called addictions.

The above suggestions made by the familiar spirits are made to your emotions, intellect and will.

Their primary goal is to get you to participate in some kind of addiction or addictions, and to get you to make a will decision that this is what you should do to be able to overcome your fear and succeed in life. They are after your will covenants. They can not control your will, however, they can get you to make a false covenant based on your belief that this or these addictions will overcome your fear and help you succeed.

EMOTIONS

Fear, anger, resentment, hate, thoughts of violence, murder and suicide.

Self-condemnation, judgment, anger, and resentment

Feelings of inferiority, insecurity, inadequacy, ineptness, unworthiness, guilt, self-guilt, punishment and self-punishment.

Depression, heaviness, despair, hopelessness, fear of being alone, loneliness, gloom, and impending doom, feelings of not existing, committing suicide, or death

I find an emotional spirit of death in most people. It resides in your emotions.

INTELLECT OR MIND

Doubt, unbelief and false beliefs about God, Satan, yourself, and other people

Unclear thoughts
