

LOVING ARMS

What I can perceive of God is that He IS Love incarnate, such a LOVE that astounds and annoys and is greater than anyone can grasp.

Love is so much Who God IS that man is incapable of knowing the difference between the immensity of the LOVE of God and the infinity of Who He IS.

If, and when, you begin to grasp a little, have an inkling of, or see a "smidgen" of, the way and how and breadth of Gods' benevolent affection towards you, expressed through Jesus, his Son, you will turn aside from everything else and fall with abandonment into the loving Arms of your Heavenly Father.

Paul Phillips
9 August 2003
paulphillips@yadtel.net