John,

We understand what has happened to you and why the Doctor's can not figure out what happened to you. We also understand why your fever came back when you came back to the office and read our email.

I am writing an article on it right now. It is called a psychic prayer attack. This happens when someone decides to really come to the Lord, they start seeking, find something that helps them, but the people around them do not agree.

It also happens if the Lord puts you into a ministry that other people don't think you should be in.

The first time it happened to me was about 22 years ago. The Lord had put me into the deliverance ministry. One morning I woke up and I was so sick that I could hardly lift my head off the pillow. I asked the Lord if I could call the elders and have them anoint me with oil and pray for me. The Lord told me that I was not sick but He would tell me when to call the elders. I laid in the bed for two days praying and wondering what was wrong with me since the Lord had told me I was not sick. On the third day the Lord said it was OK to call the elders. I called five of them and only two could come.

By the time they came I could get out of bed, so I met them in the den. As soon as they sat down, they were anointed by the Holy Spirit to start naming every one of my spirit filled friends who were praying to God that He would change me and cause me to stop ministering deliverance to people. This is psychic praying by your Christian friends, and believe me when I tell you that your Christian friends can cause you to be sick or hurt when they pray this way against you.

The definition of psychic praying by Christians is this: When I pray to the Lord to have my will done in a person's life instead of praying to have the will of the Father done in a person's life is Psychic praying and is very detrimental to that person and to the Kingdom of God.

As the elders were naming the people (which was 25 different people) the Lord had me to forgive everyone of them and pray that the convicting power of the Holy Spirit would come upon them and reveal to them what they were doing. When I forgave the last person and prayed for the Holy Spirit to come upon them, I was well. I was no longer sick. It was exactly what the Lord had told me, I was not sick and He would reveal what it was.

Here is how I have learned how to pray about Psychic prayers being prayed against. me.

Sometimes the Lord reveals who is praying and sometimes he does not. Either way I pray to forgive the person(s) who is/are praying against me. I ask God to forgive them

I then ask the Father to send Jesus to baptize them in the light of God. I pray that the veil of darkness will be rent over them to allow the light to come upon them

I then pray for the conviction of the Holy Spirit to come upon them to show them the error of their prayers and for that they may be empowered to repent of praying this way.

I Ask the Father to send Jesus and his angels to drive away all the evil beings that are being sent against me by these prayers

I then choose to break every covenant that I have knowingly or unknowingly made which allows these evil beings to attack me. I repent of ever making the covenant and ask Jesus to annul it in his blood.

I find as I do this that the psychic prayer attacks get less and less.

If you have any questions or need clarification about this, John, please write me.

In Him,

Dwight
