

How to be immersed, flooded, and filled with the Love of your Heavenly Father.

Father, I ask you to immerse me, fill me, and flood me with your Love in my Spirit, my Soul, and my Body. I praise you, and thank you Father for doing this for me right now.

For those of you that have prayed this and know that you are being filled and flooded with the Love of the Father, begin to write down what is coming to you. It could be what you want to write to the Father, or writing down what the Father is telling you. Probably, it will be both.

For those of you that have prayed this prayer and want to receive the Love of the Father, but are having some trouble, pray these prayers.

Jesus, I ask you to go back to when I was conceived and remove the fear that the only way I can receive love is for me to do something to receive it. Fill me with the knowing that I am loved by You just because you created me. Remove from my personality all the ways I try to get love. Deliver me from trying to perform for everyone in order to be loved. Deliver me from trying to dominate everyone to get them to love me. And, deliver me from acting like a little child to get them to love me. Fill me with the person you created me to be before I was ever born. I receive that new person and I want it to rule and reign in my life instead of the false person I have been functioning out of.

Jesus, take all the images I have in my memory of being rejected, not loved, hurt, abandoned, and all the images of the people and circumstances I have been in that caused me to feel this way. I choose to forgive each person who has done this to me. I ask you, Father, to fill me with your love for them and remove all the anger, bitterness, resentment, and unforgiveness that I have towards each of them.

Jesus, set my conscience free of all the evil beings that are constantly talking to me about how unloved and rejected I am by the people from my past and the people I am dealing with now. Stop them from telling me that I am a failure and that I am going to fail at everything I try to do. Stop them from talking to me about dying and death. Stop them from telling me that my Heavenly Father does not love me, and you do not love me, and that just when I need You the most, You will abandon me.

Jesus, deliver me from all the images in my imagination that are used by the evil beings in my conscience to control and manipulate me. Especially, deliver me from all the covenant curse images that I inherited from my parents, grand parents, great grand parents all the way back to Adam and Eve. I ask you to clean my imagination, and fill it with the covenant blessing images of the Kingdom God.

Jesus, send you angels to drive out Satan, and all his principalities and powers that he has sent against me to manipulate and control me and cause me to die spiritually, emotionally, mentally, and physically. I choose to live in the new life you have given me, and to live that life more abundantly.

Now, pray this prayer again.

Father, I ask you to immerse me, fill me, and flood me with your Love in my Spirit, my Soul, and my Body. I praise you, and thank you Father for doing this for me right now.

If you are genuinely interested in receiving the Love of your Heavenly Father, you need to be able to write down what the Father will say to you, and what you want to say to Him.
